THE WIND OF CHANGE

Messages for the Week of July 29th - August 2nd

Wednesday Night at 7pm

Please join our Bible Study on Luke and the story of Jesus' temptation in the wilderness this week. Every Christian knows how important studying their Bible is, so this is a great opportunity for you to learn and grow in your walk with Christ Jesus.

Sunday Service at 10am

Do you know if you are on a "Hit List?" What does it mean to have a Target Package? Join us this Sunday as we share vital information that each Christian must know. Also, being in an 'atmosphere of faith' with fellow believers is crucial to the edification of everyone and unifying the body of Christ as Jesus intended. Don't just check a box to say you attended, grow, study, learn, and fellowship like the early church at Numa Church! Learn why we say Numa Church is the "Wind of Change."

Repentance is something that every Christian needs to understand.

Where is the line between repentance and continuing to sin? Does it mean we are still saved if we continue to sin?

I Can't Make It

This week, Kathy reminds us that every believer has been called to serve in the Lord's army. As followers of Christ, we are equipped, covered in His righteousness, and commissioned to faithfully represent Him in every battle we face. Take a few moments to read this encouraging devotion and be challenged to stand strong, live worthy of your calling, and advance God's kingdom with courage and purpose.
